

is final or draft, or has been added to such plan by amendment), which is or is intended to be of limited duration, and which the Project was tasked to address; and

(B) determine whether such policy modified to meet the specific conditions of such national forest, or another policy which serves the purpose of such policy, should be adopted for such national forest.

(2) If the Secretary makes a decision that such a modified or alternative policy should be adopted for such national forest, the Secretary shall prepare and adopt for the plan for such national forest an amendment which contains such policy, which is directed solely to and affects only such plan, and which addresses the specific conditions of the national forest and the relationship of such policy to such conditions.

(3) To the maximum extent practicable, any amendment prepared pursuant to paragraph (2) shall establish procedures to develop site-specific standards in lieu of imposing general standards applicable to multiple sites. Any amendment which would result in any change in land allocations within the plan or reduce the likelihood of achievement of the goals and objectives of the plan (prior to any previous amendment incorporating in the plan any policy referred to in paragraph (1)(A)) shall be deemed a significant plan amendment pursuant to section 6(f)(4) of the Forest and Rangeland Renewable Resources Planning Act of 1974 (16 U.S.C. 1604(f)(4)).

(4) Any amendment prepared pursuant to paragraph (2) which adopts a modified or alternative policy to substitute for a policy referred to in paragraph (1)(A) which has undergone consultation pursuant to section 7 of the Endangered Species Act of 1973 shall not again be subject to the consultation provisions of such section 7. No further consultation shall be undertaken on any policy referred to in paragraph (1)(A).

(5) Any amendment prepared pursuant to paragraph (2) shall be adopted on or before March 31, 1996: Provided, That any amendment deemed a significant amendment pursuant to paragraph (3) shall be adopted on or before June 30, 1996.

(6) No policy referred to in paragraph (1)(A) shall be effective on or after April 1, 1996.

SEC. 315. (a) The Secretary of the Interior (acting through the Bureau of Land Management, the National Park Service and the United States Fish and Wildlife Service) and the Secretary of Agriculture (acting through the Forest Service) shall each implement a fee program to demonstrate the feasibility of user-generated cost recovery for the operation and maintenance of recreation sites and habitat enhancement projects on Federal lands.

(b) In carrying out the pilot program established pursuant to this section, the appropriate Secretary shall select from areas under the jurisdiction of each of the four agencies referred to in subsection (a) no fewer than 10, but as many as 30, sites or projects for fee demonstration. For each such demonstration, the Secretary, notwithstanding any other provision of law—

(1) shall charge and collect fees for admission to the area or for the use of outdoor recreation sites, facilities, visitor centers, equipment, and services by individuals and groups, or any combination thereof;

(2) shall establish fees under this section based upon a variety of cost recovery and fair market valuation methods to provide a broad basis for feasibility testing;

(3) may contract with any public or private entity to provide visitor services, including reservations and information, and may accept services of volunteers to collect fees charged pursuant to paragraph (1); and

(4) may encourage private investment and partnerships to enhance the delivery of quality customer services and resource enhancement, and provide appropriate recognition to such partners or investors.

(c)(1) Amounts collected at each fee demonstration site in excess of 104 percent of that site's total collections during the previous fiscal year shall be distributed as follows:

(i) Eighty percent of the amounts collected at the demonstration site shall be deposited in a special account in the Treasury established for the administrative unit in which the project is located and shall remain available for expenditure in accordance with paragraph (3) for further activities of the site or project.

(ii) Twenty percent of the amounts collected at the demonstration site shall be deposited in a special account in the Treasury for each agency and shall remain available for expenditure in accordance with paragraph (3) for use on an agencywide basis.

(2) For purposes of this subsection, "total collections" for each site shall be defined as gross collections before any reduction for amounts attributable to collection costs.

(3) Expenditures from the special funds shall be accounted for separately.

(4) In order to increase the quality of the visitor experience at public recreational areas and enhance the protection of resources, amounts available for expenditure under paragraph (1) may only be used for the site or project concerned, for backlogged repair and maintenance projects (including projects relating to health and safety) and for interpretation, signage, habitat or facility enhancement, resource preservation, annual operation, maintenance, and law enforcement relating to public use. The agencywide accounts may be used for the same purposes set forth in the preceding sentence, but for sites or projects selected at the discretion of the respective agency head.

(d)(1) Amounts collected under this section shall not be taken into account for the purposes of the Act of May 23, 1908 and the Act of March 1, 1911 (16 U.S.C. 500), the Act of March 4, 1913 (16 U.S.C. 501), the Act of July 22, 1937 (7 U.S.C. 1012), the Act of August 8, 1937 and the Act of May 24, 1939 (43 U.S.C. 1181f et seq.), the Act of June 14, 1926 (43 U.S.C. 869-4), chapter 69 of title 31, United States Code, section 401 of the Act of June 15, 1935 (16 U.S.C. 715s), the Land and Water Conservation Fund Act of 1965 (16 U.S.C. 460l), and any other provision of law relating to revenue allocation.

(2) Fees charged pursuant to this section shall be in lieu of fees charged under any other provision of law.

(e) The Secretary of the Interior and the Secretary of Agriculture shall carry out this section without promulgating regulations.

(f) The authority to collect fees under this section shall commence on October 1, 1995, and end on September 30, 1996. Funds in accounts established shall remain available through September 30, 1997.

SEC. 316. The Forest Service and Bureau of Land Management may offer for sale salvageable timber in the Pacific Northwest in fiscal year 1996: Provided, That for public lands known to contain the Northern spotted owl, such salvage sales may be offered as long as the offering of such sale will not render the area unsuitable as habitat for the Northern spotted owl: Provided further, That timber salvage activity in spotted owl habitat is to be done in full compliance with all existing environmental and forest management laws.

SEC. 317. None of the funds made available in this Act may be used for any program, project, or activity when it is made known to the Federal entity or official to which the funds are made available that the program, project, or activity is not in compliance with any applicable Federal law relating to risk assessment, the protection of private property rights, or unfunded mandates.

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Chairman, I move that the Committee do now rise.

The motion was agreed to.

Accordingly, the Committee rose; and the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. GUTKNECHT) having assumed the chair, Mr. BURTON, Chairman of the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union, reported that that Committee, having had under consideration the bill (H.R. 1977) making appropriations for the Department of the Interior and related agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes, had come to no resolution thereon.

REPORT ON RESOLUTION PROVIDING FOR CONSIDERATION OF H.R. 2020, TREASURY, POSTAL SERVICE, EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT, AND CERTAIN INDEPENDENT AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1996

Mr. SOLOMON, from the Committee on Rules, submitted a privileged report (Rept. No. 104-190) on the resolution (H. Res. 190) providing for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 2020) making appropriations for the Treasury Department, the U.S. Postal Service, the Executive Office of the President, and certain Independent Agencies for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1996, and for other purposes, which was referred to the House Calendar and ordered to be printed.
